

Improving patient Safety and clinical engagement

A national conference for public and private healthcare providers

Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin, Ireland
Tuesday 28th September 2010

Registration and coffee from 13.45

Opening address

Dr. James Reilly

Deputy Leader - Health & Children, Fine Gael

Chair

Mr. John Sweeney

Health Care Informed

- 14.20 Welcome
Jill Krynicky, Unit Director, CHKS
- 14.30 Building a culture of patient safety and continuous quality improvement
Dr Deirdre Madden, Chair, Commission on Patient Safety
- 15.00 Using accreditation to drive quality and safety
Sister Agnes Fitzgerald, Cuan Mhuire, Winner of the CHKS Quality Improvement Award 2010
- 15.30 The tools for improvement: the new international standards and Accreditation Online
Russell Muddiman, CHKS
- 16.00 Coffee break
- 16.30 Engaging clinicians in quality improvement
Speaker TBC
- 17.00 Empowering staff and engaging patients to drive improvement
Mr Sean O'Healy, Chief Executive, Galway Hospice
- 17.30 Rewarding the best – the CHKS Accreditation Award presentations
Jill Krynicky, Unit Director, CHKS
- 17.45 Drinks reception
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
- 18.45 Close

Improving patient safety and clinical engagement - a national event for public and private hospitals in Ireland

28th September 2010
Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin